

The Missionary Position: In Utah, the Church is the State

The Washington Monthly

APRIL 2001

$4.50
CAN. $5.50

•
The Myth of an Underpaid Military

•
The Great
Gene Grab

AIDS Inc.

Why does federal money fund
psychic hotline calls,
flirting classes, and Copacabana conferences?

0474-6574

Tidbits & Outrages

Our children is in trouble

"You teach a child to read and he or her will be able to pass a literacy test," said George W. Bush during a speech at Townsend Elementary school.

Like a Virgin

The Wall Street Journal reports that among the most popular forms of plastic surgery in Korea is the thinning women's calves and the replacing of 'lost' hymens.

With puberty and justice for all

State Rep. Ron Wilson (D-Tex.) is sponsoring a bill to lower the state's voting age to 14.

At least it will keep him from making another Conan movie

A grassroots effort is trying to draft actor Arnold Schwarzenegger as the GOP nominee for California governor in 2002.

Give That Man a Cigar

A federal judge ruled that a New York college student can sue a professor for repeatedly referring to her as "Monica Lewinsky."

One Strategy the DEA never considered

Because of the California energy crunch, folks who grow marijuana indoors with 1,000-watt light bulbs are having financial difficulties.

It Went Over Well In A Focus Group

Al Gore has asked students in his journalism class to call him "Your Adequacy."

Special thanks to Doug Hines